

Senior Fibre Planner

Job Description

We are currently recruiting a Senior Fibre Planning Engineer for our expanding team in our Limerick office. The candidate will be joining an experienced team of talented individuals with expertise across multiple engineering disciplines.

Reporting to

Operations Director

Role and Responsibilities

The key responsibilities for the successful candidate will include:

- Lead a team of talented fibre planners
- Mentor and develop graduate fibre planners
- Technical support to bid & commercial team
- Assess & integrate new technologies and ways of working for continual improvement
- Plan optical fibre paths and produce maps and drawings
- Desktop surveys and report viability of customer connections
- Provide CAD and mapping support to other team members
- Data modeling, building map and database environments
- Capacity planning

Experience and Qualifications

- Engineering degree with 10 years post graduate experience in FTTH
- Inventory Management and Network Planning experience is essential
- Excellent computer literacy skills in Microsoft Office applications
- GIS & CAD experience necessary
- Direct management of team members or department
- Analytical, detail oriented, high level of flexibility with willingness to learn/develop
- Strong administration/documentation background
- Excellent time management and organisational skills
- Ability to multi-task in a structure format
- Strong interpersonal skills in both oral and written communication
- Excellent written and spoken English required

innovation engineered

Salary: Negotiable depending on experience

Applications to careers@4sitenetworks.com