

Technical Solutions Engineer

Job Description

Due to our expanding business we are recruiting for a well organised, enthusiastic Technical Solutions Engineer to join our dynamic wireless teams. While the role is predominantly office-based, from our Limerick office, you can expect some travel to client offices and sites.

Reporting to

Project Manager

Role and Responsibilities

- Provide technical support for the project team in the areas of Radio, Transmission, Power, Structural, rigging all while considering the optimal solution as per client requirements & constraints
- Knowledge sharing and upskilling project team
- Create and execute current work plans and development strategy to meet customer requirements
- Recognise process deficiencies and implement effective solutions across projects
- Work with clients to define project design & technical guidelines
- Communicate and enforce current project-specific and industry standards and specifications internally & externally
- Challenge others to develop skills/knowledge while serving as a role model
- Facilitate effective interaction between onsite & office teams
- Ensure high quality product is delivered to the Client
- Ensure SLAs are being achieved
- Complete site technical documentation
- Highlight specialist design checks required
- Assess design proposals for electrical and HVAC compatibility

Experience

- Proven industry experience or 3rd Level degree with focus on engineering / telecoms
- Evidence of on-going professional development
- 2 years + in a rollout environment
- Radio engineering or transmission background
- Excellent working knowledge of wireless technologies for mobile networks
- Detailed vendor knowledge of Antenna System, BBU and Tx components
- PC Literate (proficient in MS Office) with good reporting and communication skills
- Installation & Commissioning / Field Engineering experience beneficial
- Full clean driving licence

innovation engineered

Personal Attributes

- Determined and enthusiastic
- Keen to learn & develop skills
- Thorough and well organised
- Strong team player
- Good communicator & IT literate
- Attention to detail
- Driven to succeed

Salary: Negotiable depending on experience

Applications to careers@4sitenetworks.com